++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright start in west, but generally cloudy with occasional rain.

Today:
Mainly dry morning with some sunny spells across Dumfries and Galloway, but the Lothians and Borders look cloudy with outbreaks of occasionally heavy rain. The cloud and rain are expected to develop more widely again for the afternoon. Breezy. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain turns more showery this evening with, especially in west, some late sunny spells developing. The showers become more isolated overnight with some clear spells likely. Winds easing. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tuesday:
A bright day with some sunny spells but showers develop more widely through the morning and become heavy at times, especially in east, for the afternoon. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rather cloudy start Wednesday but becoming brighter with a few showers. Thursday, dry with sunny spells. Patchy rain spreads east Friday but brighter in west later. Warmer than of late.
